The University of Montana Athletic Department will present two special awards at the halftime of Saturday's alumni football game.

Veteran professional football player Mike Tilleman and long-time associate of the athletic department George P. "Jiggs" Dahlberg will be presented plaques during the halftime activities.

Tilleman, an eight year veteran, will be presented the Montana Pro of the Year plaque as the most outstanding former UM player in the pro ranks. The massive defensive tackle has played for three teams in his career. He has been with Minnesota, New Orleans and last season played for the Houston Oilers. At the close of the 1972 season he asked to be traded and will don an Atlanta Falcons' uniform for the 1973 season.

Dahlberg's lengthy association with UM athletics began in 1921 and he is being given the Papa Bear Award for loyal and distinguished service to the University of Montana. Dahlberg graduated from the University in 1925 and spent 12 years in the high school coaching ranks before returning as head basketball coach, football line coach and equipment manager at his alma mater in 1937.

He served as head basketball coach until taking the post of Athletic Director in 1955. His 1949-50 basketball team compiled a 27-4 record, the finest season in the history of the school.

He relinquished his duties as Athletic Director in July of 1961 and is currently writing and compiling a history of UM athletics.
